Financial strength

Stellar credit ratings are a strong indicator that a company is built to last. NYLIAC and its parent company, New York Life Insurance Company have earned the highest financial strength ratings currently awarded to any U.S. life insurer in all four major ratings categories.¹

A++ | A.M. Best Aaa | Moody's
AAA | Fitch AA+ | Standard & Poor's

Mutuality

New York Life Insurance Company (NYLIC) is the largest mutual life insurance company in America.² Mutuality means that, unlike publicly traded companies, NYLIC is accountable only to our clients—not shareholders. NYLIC clients share in the long-term success of the company.

- 170 consecutive years paying dividends to life insurance policy holders³
- A $2.2 billion dividend payout in 2024³
- Ranked #71 on Fortune 500²

Please note that most New York Life annuities are issued by NYLIAC, which is not a mutual life insurance company.

Annuities are long-term financial products designed for retirement purposes. There are fees, guidelines, limitations, restrictions and risks to consider. Withdrawals or surrenders may be subject to ordinary income taxes and, if made prior to age 59½, may be subject to a 10% IRS penalty. Variable annuities are subject to market risk, will fluctuate in value, and may lose principal value. For costs and complete details, contact a financial professional.

All guarantees, including the death benefit payments, are dependent on the claims-paying ability of New York Life Insurance and Annuity Corporation (NYLIAC) and do not apply to the underlying Investment Divisions in the variable annuity.

Investors are asked to consider the investment objectives, risks, charges, and expenses of the investment carefully before investing in a variable annuity. The prospectuses contain this and other information about the product and underlying investment options and can be obtained from a financial professional. Investors should read the prospectuses carefully before investing.

New York Life Variable Annuities are issued by New York Life Insurance and Annuity Corporation (NYLIAC) (A Delaware Corporation) and offered by properly licensed Registered Representatives of NYLIFE Securities LLC (Member FINRA/SIPC), A Licensed Insurance Agency. NYLIAC and NYLIFE Securities LLC are wholly owned subsidiaries of New York Life Insurance Company, 51 Madison Avenue, New York, NY 10010.
