FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SYDNEY DOVERSPIKE HALE ELECTED TO NEW YORK LIFE'S 2024 NATIONAL AGENTS ADVISORY COUNCIL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

LOUISIANA, 2024 – Sydney Hale, a member of New York Life Insurance Company's Agents Advisory Council (AAC), has been elected to the AAC's Executive Committee. Founded in 1946, the AAC is a prominent group of 24 New York Life agents elected by their peers. The Executive Committee consists of six AAC members – chosen by the AAC at large – who represent the AAC when meeting with senior executives of the Company. Together, they develop and implement ideas that will benefit families and businesses in their local area.

Mrs. Hale, a President's Council agent, was recently elected to be a member of the Executive Committee at the Advisory Group's annual meeting. Her tenure on the Executive Committee will last for 1 year. The Executive Committee consists of a President, Vice President, three Secretaries, and an Advisor. Mrs. Hale will serve as First Secretary of the 2024 AAC.
